Do You Want to Know What You Swallow?

There is a growing sentiment in this country in favor of MEDICINES OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. It is but natural that one should have some interest in the composition of that which he or she is expected to swallow, whether it be food, drink or medicine.

Recognizing this growing disposition on the part of the public, and satisfied that the fullest publicity can only add to the well-earned reputation of his medicines, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has "taken time by the forelock," as it were, and is publishing broadcast a list of all the ingredients entering into his leading medicines, the "Golden Medical Discovery" the popular liver invigorator, stomach tonic, blood purifier and heart regulator; also of his "Favorite Prescription" for weak, over-worked, broken-down, nervous and invalid women.

This bold and out-spoken movement on the part of Dr. Pierce, has, by showing exactly what his well-known medicines are composed of, completely disarmed all harping critics who have heretofore unjustly attacked them. A little pamphlet has been compiled, from the standard medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, showing the strongest endorsements by leading medical writers of the several ingredients which enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines. A copy of this little book is mailed free to any one desiring to learn more concerning the valuable, native, medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's medicines. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules. They regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not beget the "pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away 680,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away 680,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HEARST'S ELECTION EXPENSES.

Something of a sensation was caused in New York yesterday when it was announced that Wm. R. Hearst, who was the candidate for governor on the democratic and Independence League tickets in the recent campaign, had filed with the Secretary of State at Albany a statement showing that he had spent the sum of $256,870.22 in his efforts to win the election. Not since the law requiring candidates for public office to file a list of their expenses went into effect a few years ago has anyone seeking the favor of the voters admitted the spending of one-eighth of that sum for election purposes. The sum, in magnitude, is far and away greater than any other recorded in the books of the State for that particular purpose.

Of the amount expended Mr. Hearst reported to the Secretary of State that he had given to John G. Follansbee, the treasurer of the Independence League, $198,870.22, and to Wm. J. Conners, chairman of the democratic State committee, $57,000. The balance of $500 be spent for traveling expenses.

As large as this sum may appear to be for one man to spend on an attempt to gain an office which pays a salary of $10,000 a year, for two years, the total, as reported to the Secretary of State, does not begin to compare with the actual amount that Mr. Hearst spent in his fight to be governor of New York. In the first place the total does not, in any way, include the preliminary fight he made to get the nomination and the law does not require that such expenditures should be included.

The statement does not include the enormous cost of distributing, free of charge, copies of Mr. Hearst's newspapers, of which millions of copies were given away during the campaign.

The official figures of the number of votes cast for Mr. Hearst have not yet been tabulated, and the cost per vote to him cannot yet be estimated with any degree of accuracy; but from what is known in a general way his actual campaign expenses will equal at least 80 cents for every vote he received.

On the other hand, Charles E. Hughes, the successful candidate for governor, who ran on the straight republican ticket, spent, according to his report, only $618.55, which would equal something like eight cents for every 100 votes cast for him.

Mr. Hearst was asked yesterday, "To what do you attribute your defeat?"

"To defections in the democratic party. If I had not had McCarren to fight in Brooklyn, and McClellan in New York, I would have won," he replied.

"Then it was not the moneyed interests that defeated you?"

"It was the moneyed interests working through those elements in the democratic party."

"Do you think Secretary Root's speech contributed to the result?"

"Not at all. The thing was so obviously unjust that its only effect was to increase, perhaps, the enthusiasm of some of my followers. I feel sure it did not cost me a vote and yet, it did not turn any republican vote to me."

The Pocahontas Monument.

[From a Princeton, N. J. newspaper.]

The interesting commemorative meeting of the New Jersey Society of Colonial Dames of America which was held in Nassau Hall on the 16th inst., recalls the efforts of the Pocahontas Memorial Association to raise a statue on Jamestown Island, to be unveiled at the Jamestown Exposition in 1907. This commendable effort should appeal to all the women of the country, whose knowledge of the heroic services of this Indian princess from her twelfth year rendered to the colony of Jamestown until it was firmly established, not only by her devotion through her girlhood, but by her marriage with John Rolfe, a young Englishmenet, she secured to the English the friendship of her father, the powerful Chief Powhatan. King James feared this marriage might be treason on the part of Rolfe, in that he being a commoner had married a native American princess.

Though she left but one child, her numerous descendants all turn with pride to their ancestress, Pocahontas, whose noble character and courage and sympathy with the suffering colonists led her to brave danger, and her father's and her people's wrath. She oft times carried to them food, which saved them from starvation, and warnings that put them on a timely defence.

We trust all who read this will give a helping hand to perpetuate the memory of this famous woman, and make the association as successful as many such efforts have been in the past, notably the effort of one woman, Miss Cunningham of South Carolina, to save the home of Washington. Her appeal to the women of the country met with such success that her object was accomplished.

Fortunate Missourians.

"When I was a druggist, at Livonia, Mo.," writes T. J. Dwyer, now of Graysville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong today. One was trying to sell his property and move to Arizona, but after using New Discovery a short time he found it unnecessary to do so. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest Cough and Cold cure and Throat and Lung healer. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, 50c and $1. Ravages by Flood.

Homeless and suffering from hunger and exposure, and in hourly dread that the rising waters will overwhelm them, thousands of residents of the fertile valleys lying between Seattle and Tacoma camped yesterday evening in the foothills nearby, with what few provisions and effects they could carry in a hurried fight

Six deaths have thus far been chronicled as due to the floods which have followed the rapid rise of the rivers in King and Pierce counties

All the valley towns are under water, the depth ranging from eight to twenty feet. Railroad communication has been cut and the towns cannot be reached except by message over the long-distance telephone wires. With the water already standing on the streets at such a depth that it is no longer safe for residents to remain in the first stories of their houses, the men are organizing in each town and either removing the helpless ones to the second stories or carrying them away to places of safety.

JEWELRY.

is used oftener than almost any other room in the house. That is why it should be made the most comfortable spot, and be pleasingly arranged.

Without cut glass and silverware a dining room makes little impression and is hardly home like. A few pieces tastily arranged will make a better effect than many of them placed indiscriminately.

A silver fern dish puts a finish to the table and livens up the room. A silver set is needed to decorate the sideboard. A few cut glass pieces so arranged as to contrast with the tea set will make the sideboard as it should be. The cut glass required are decanters, berry bowls and fruit dishes. The only other silver piece that should be in evidence is the candelabra.

If you want your dining room to be just so have the bread trays and other trays of silver. Even the crumb tray and scraper should be silver-plated.

The steel knives should have silver-plated handles to match the silver-plated spoons, knives and forks.

If you are not satisfied unless your dining-room is properly fitted, you are undoubtedly particular about your own person. It is just as well that you are. A little attention to your ownself begets attention from others. Wear a diamond ring or two, a locket, watch and chain. As the chain is more in evidence than the watch or the locket, you may as well wear the best there is—the guaranteed Z-K Gold Chain.

Let us fit out the dining-room as well as yourself. Prices very reasonable.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, NOV. 17, 1906.

DURING the proceedings of a conference of ministers of this State on Thursday attention was called to the fact that recruiting for the ministry was growing less all the time. The reason given for the decrease in the number of candidates was the fact that more attractive possibilities are offered in other callings in life. This is a sad admission, and gives strength to the observation often made by the world at large that many enter the ministry merely for the loaves and fishes. Love for the profession and the earnest desire to interest persons in the Christian religion without money and without price seem to be wanting in our day, and such a condition of affairs so apparent in the church militant may account for the falling off in church attendance and the lethargy manifested both in the pew and by those without in the claims of the church. The man who views the ministry simply as he does any commercial calling in life is not calculated to make much impression upon the thoughtful. Attention has been called to the fact that there is nothing in the New Testament to show that the Author of the faith ever had a penny, and the fact that the greatest of all preachers of the Gospel supported himself generally while proclaiming its truths, stand in marked contrast with the views of many moderns.

FOLLOWING close upon the launch of the Dreadnaught from the British shipyards, the biggest battleship in the world, the Japanese government has this week set afloat the Satsuma, a still larger and more formidable engine of of war. The Satsuma is expected to develop greater speed than the Dreadnaught, and will have more formidable batteries. The fact that this naval monster has been built in Japan by exclusively Japanese labor throws an interesting light on the advancement of the "Yankees of the East." They are rapidly becoming in all respects a self-dependent nation altogether capable of taking care of themselves and keeping the place they have won among the "world powers."

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER SMITH, of the Bureau of Corporations, says the government will prosecute the Standard Oil Company to collect $160,000,000 in penalties for violating the Elkins act. He says every railroad except the New York Central has given the information asked for, and that the Standard had a system by which it controlled the freight rates in its favor throughout the country. In the East, he said, the railroads would give through rates on all commodities except oil to any one, but on oil only to the Standard. Indictments have now been filed against the Standard in three States and the trial should be pushed with energy—though it is doubtful if there will be any results.

IT IS stated that former Governor Herrick, of Ohio, and Thomas F. Walsh, of Denver, have formed a $9,000,000 syndicate for the purpose of harnessing the mountain streams of the Rockies for long distance transmission, so as to revolutionize western industries. John Hayes Hammond has been employed as chief engineer, and Mr. Herrick predicts that in ten years every railroad crossing the mountains will use electrical power generated by falling water. Surely man's ingenuity and electricity are working wonders.

THE REPORT of the treasury experts who have been examining the books of the sub-treasury at St. Louis shows that a shortage of $61,500 exists, but they were unable to trace the responsibility for it, all of which shows a remarkable condition of affairs existing at the St. Louis sub-treasury. Assistant Treasurer Akin will be called upon to make good the deficit. He is bonded for $250,000. Detectives will continue to work on the case.

THE STATE of Louisiana, through its tax collector, has begun action against the Standard Oil Company to compel it to take out a license as peddler for the last three years, and pay fees to the amount of $3,550. It is believed that as the Standard is now conducting its business the company could be required to take out a peddler's license in every State and in nearly every city and town in the country.

LUCIEN PALMER, a Milwaukee caterer, has been elected a member of the Wisconsin Legislature from the richest district in the State. The election is notable for the reason that Palmer is a colored man. He is the first of his race to serve the State of Wisconsin in a legislative capacity.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, it is said, is going to make a trip to the Philippines. He will then be able to better determine what the people of the United States are getting in return for the expenditure of $600,000,000 upon the Philippines besides the original purchase price of $20,000,000.

THE RUSSIAN Council of Ministers has approved the adoption of the income tax measure proposed by the Minister of Finance, which is expected to produce a revenue of $20,000,000 a year. An income tax is now levied by nearly all of the old countries of the world and it is more than probable that such a tax will before long become a source of revenue to the government of the United States.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Nov. 17.

A run on the Washington Loan and Trust Company created considerable excitement this morning. A bank examiner, B. H. Warner and Father Stafford talked to the excited depositors from a table, telling them that the bank is one of the safest institutions in the country and there was no danger. Father Stafford said all the church money was there and he was not worrying. The run was caused by the complaint of a woman who had money in an institution with a name some what similar to the Washington Loan & Trust Company and was unable to get it at once. An examination ordered by the Comptroller of the Currency showed the bank to be perfectly solvent. The "insufficient funds" referred to her own account.

The Newfoundland government, in pursuance of its determination to contest the legality of the modusvivendi entered into between the United States and the British government which conflicts into its own fishing law and restructions regarding the fishing by American in Newfoundland waters, has taken steps to put the matter to a test. The State Departmeni has been informed that two colonial fishermen, Baits and Crane, have been arrested tried and convicted of having, in violation of the bait act, put herring on board the American vessel, Ralph Hall, and of having shipped aboard that vessel outside the three mile limit. They were fined $500 each with the alternative of serving three months in prison. Bond was given for the men by counsel and an appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court. At the State Department this morning it was announced that this attitude of Mr. Alexandria was taken under instrucrions from the department itself.

In a formal statement issued this afternoon Secretary Shaw, of the Treasury Department, announces that he is in entire sympathy with the general plan for elastic currency adopted by a special committee of the American Bankers' Association in this city. He says "he will be pleased beyond measure if Congress will adopt every detail of the plan." He says if Congress determines to add an elastic feature to the currency system, there should be no doubt of favorable results in a short time.

Capt. Carl Reichman, 17th Infantry, will probably be called upon by the Secretary of War to explain the statement made by him in a letter to a New York friend published this morning that he has been debarred from the United States army general staff because of his German birth. He insinuates also, much to the surprise of his brother officers at the War Department that he has been in disfavor because he is not an "Anglomaniac" and a "Japanesemaniac." The reference made by Capt. Reichman in his letter to the close relations between the United States and Japan are considered serious by officials of the War Department. It is declared that there is absolutely no foundation in his statement that he has been kept out of the general staff because he was born a German and once served in the German army.

Struggle with Hangmen.

For two hours and a half yesterday the sheriff and his deputies struggled with Mims Devereaux, the negro who refused to give himself up to be hanged at Milledgeville, Ga., at noon yesterday, according to sentence. It was not until 2.50 o'clock that the prisoner was bound with ropes, carried to the scaffold and hanged.

When the sheriff started to enter the cell the prisoner leaped at him and the officer escaped barely with his life. He slammed the door only a moment before the powerful black prisoner would have closed with him. Running to a corner of his cell, the negro waved a bottle above his head and shouted that he would kill the first man who undertook to carry him to the scaffold.

The sheriff could easily have shot the prisoner, but he decided that he could not inflict death upon the prisoner except in the manner prescribed by law. The cell is a small one. Devereaux had not been chained and was, apparently, reconciled to his fate. He had shown much religious fervor and seemed willing to meet his end.

The outbreak of the condemned man was unexpected by the officials, and for a time they were unable to cope with the prisoner. However, after much maneuvering, the negro was finally overpowered, bound with ropes and carried to the prison yard, where the sentence of death was executed.

Signor Caruso Arrested.

New York, Nov. 17.—Signor Enrico Caruso, the world's greatest tenor, arrested yesterday for disorderly and indecent conduct, did not appear in court today when his case was called. The tenor, his counsel told the court, was suffering from sciataca and would be unable to appear. Mrs. Graham, the complainant, was absent. Caruso is said to have completely collapsed in his apartments in the Savoy. Caruso paid a visit yesterday afternoon to the monkey house in Central Park. Mrs. Graham was there. Caruso was standing behind the woman and she suddenly wheeled on him accusing him of having annoyed her. Officer Kane nabbed the singer and haled him to the police station. Caruso protested, but to no avail. At the station Caruso declared he had never seen Mrs. Graham until she turned on him and he protested in broken English against the "outrage of his arrest." Caruso was then thrust into a cell until Herr Conreid, manager of the Metropolitan Opera House, called and gave the $500 bail demanded.

St. Louis, Nov. 17.—The grand jury today returned an indictment for embezzlement against D. P. Dyer, jr., paying teller at the United States sub-treasury, here, and son of United States District Attorney Dyer. The amount involved is said to be $61,700.

Chloroform a few days ago ended the suffering of the lion which was sent to President Roosevelt by King Menelik of Abyssinia, and the pelt will be mounted and sent to the Smithsonian Institution. The lion had been in almost constant pain from the time of his arrival in Washington, in March, 1904.

Tying a strap around his neck and attaching one end of it to a beam in the cellar, eleven-year-old Charles Smith, of Philadelphia, Thursday, kicked from under him a table upon which he was standing. In a moment the boy was dead, the jolt having broken his neck. The act was committed in the presence of his nine-year-old brother, Charles, it is said, had no intention of killing himself, being simply imbued with the intention to imitate a hanging which he had read of in a dime novel.

The employees of the bindery division of the government printing office in Washington have been wrought to a high state of anxiety and excitement by an order, issued by Public Printer Stillings, directing that the foremen of that division furnish names of all persons whose services can be dispensed with for any reason—sickness, incompetency or any other cause. It is said that when the foremen received the order they were indignant, and that two of them, Espey and Conner, rather than comply with the order, tendered their resignations. Both resignations, it is said, are in the hands of the Public Printer.

The Episcopal Court of Review which heard the appeal of Rev. A. S. Crapsey, D. D., from the verdict of the diocesan court, which found him guilty of heresy, has reached a decision. It is not made public. It is understood that the decision is based purely on questions of law, and is either a reversal of the diocesan court which convicted Dr. Crapsey or an affirmation of that conviction. It was intimated that the court had not felt itself, under the canon which created it, able to deal with matters of doctrine, faith or worship. In these it was held during the hearing of the appeal the diocesan court had a distinct jurisdiction. The case will not, it was explained, be sent to the General Convention for adjudication, but the two alternatives suggested were possible.

Victim of Confidence Game.

Ellis Reeves, of Orange, was the victim of a confidence game in Washington yesterday, losing $160. Reeves says he met a man on Pennsylvania avenue who consented to act as his guide. While in the postoffice the stranger told Reeves he could secure for him a government position, and asked Reeves if he had any references. "No," replied Reeves, "but I have $160 in cash, and that ought to talk," and he handed the stranger the envelope containing the money. After a parley, an envelope was returned to him which, when opened, was found to contain some old paper.

An opinion rendered by Judge McDowell, in the U. S. While Mortimer Brown, a farmer, was driving to his home near Ashby Station, Warren county, last night, a lone highwayman suddenly sprang from out of the darkness, and grabbing Mr. Brown's horse with one hand, flourished a revolver with the other and demanded the farmer's money. Mr. Brown seized his buggy whip and dealt the robber several blows over the head. He then drove off hurriedly, leaving the highwayman dazed in the road. There is no clew to the robber.

THE METHODISTS.

The Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South had the first sensation of its session in Portsmouth yesterday, when Bishop Hendrix sustained the point of order that Rev. W. H. Atwill, presiding elder of the Danville district, was "parodying" a minister of a sister Christian denomination. Just after Dr. Atwill began his report he told of the difficulties in the work of the mountainous section caused by the efforts of a certain denomination, which had gained a foothold there, to discredit the work of the minister of the Methodist church.

He cited as one instance that of a preacher, who, in replying to one of his sermons on temperance, had declared that this temperance question was all humbug; that he found abundant mention in the Bible of the drinking of wine, but only one mention of asking for water, and that was by a man who was in hell, and ought to have been there.

The speaker was proceeding to imitate the tone and style of the preacher he was talking about, when Rev. O. F. Lipscomb arose to a point of order, claiming that Mr. Atwill was getting off a parody on a member of another religious denomination. The bishop sustained the point and told Mr. Atwill to confine himself to a report of the condition of his work. Mr. Atwill asked the pardon of the Conference if he had offended but maintained that he had not intended his remarks as a parody, but was stating facts. He dropped the peculiar tone he had been using and proceeded with his report.

It seemed that many of the members of the body were in sympathy with Mr. Atwill and the position he had taken and wished to take the floor in his defense, knowing, they claimed, the conditions existing in portions of his district.

The class of the second year was called, members of which passed an examination of character Thursday, and were advanced to the class of the third year.

The Preachers' Relief Society reported receipts during the year of $9,164.03; disbursements, $8,702; assets, $39,597.38; an increase of $962.93 in assets for the year.

A letter was read from M. A. Davidson asking that his name be placed among the superannuates.

THE BAPTISTS.

Much business was crowded into the last day of the session of the Baptist General Convention in Richmond yesterday. The temperance report declared the saloon an enemy to the churches, and dealt more with conditions than statistics. Dr. W. C. Taylor, in discussing the conditions, declared that the Atlanta riots were due to the ease with which whisky could be procured.

Dr. E. W. Winfree offered a resolution intended to settle once and for all the long-mooted question as to the ownership of the church of Richmond College. The resolution provided for a committee to confer with the board of Richmond College and ascertain whether Richmond College is legally, as it is practically, the property of the denomination, and if it is found not to be so, to suggest a plan by which it may be made so.

Dr. McDaniel read the report of the woman's board, showing that through the avenues of their work $30,000 had been distributed.

The report on home missions showed progress in the work in Cuba, Panama, and the United States. There were 15,436 baptisms during the year.

Dr. Calvin S. Blackwell, chairman of the committee appointed to suggest plans looking to an evangelical exhibit at the Jamestown Exposition next year, made his report, after which resolutions were adopted indorsing the movement for general evangelical services, and providing a fund of $2,500 for aid in the general work, and for the exhibit.

The convention adjourned to meet next year in Danville.

Croker Interviewed.

[Copyrighted 1906 by the Publishers Press.]

Dublin, Ireland, Nov. 17.—Richard Croker today gave out an interview in which he added a chapter to his quarrel with William R. Hearst and paid his respects to his enemies in Tammany Hall.

In reply to the correspondent's first question as to what had caused Hearst's defeat in the recent election, Mr. Croker replied: "God Almighty." Then he added: "His defeat is a judgment of heaven owing to his scurrilous charges and his ungentlemanly conduct of the campaign, villifying everyone who did not hold his opinion. In all my experience I do not remember a campaign which sunk to such billingsgate. I see Hearst referred to me as a corrupt politician. If he thinks so, why did he visit me in 1903 at Wantage, and beg me to resume the leadership of Tammany Hall? Mr. Hearst implored me to re-enter politics, saying that Lewis Nixon was incompetent and that everybody wanted me to return. Hearst also confessed that he was ambitions to enter politics and said I could help him.

"Because I think Hearst is still a danger to democracy, I consider it my duty to speak. If Hearst had been elected governor and had continued raising class distinctions, cursing those who made our country and vilifying everyone with a bank account, I am convinced he would have caused a class war, bringing sadder days than any America has ever known. His power to do this has not disappeared. Democracy should be on guard against him. God help democracy if Hearstism becomes its guiding principle."

Mr. Croker was asked what he had to say about the charge by Bourke Cockran that he was a corrupt politician, and he replied.

"I want to tell Cockran that I believe him to be the biggest blackguard of modern times. In all my experience I have never found an honest streak in him. When Cockran was a poor youth I not only introduced him into politics, but as he had no money, I induced Tammany to pay the expenses of his congressional campaign. When he got into Congress Cockran wanted to be appointed on the ways and means committee. I still had faith in him and suggested his appointment to Speaker Crisp. Mr. Crisp demurred, saying he feared democracy would be sorry later, but finally Cockran was appointed. I consider Cockran one of the most dangerous and one of the most treacherous men in American politics. I always found Charles F. Murphy upright, honest and well meaning. I am still unable to account for his support of Hearst in the nominating convention."

Mr. Croker in referring to charges that have been made against him said: "If any one can specifically accuse me of corruption in my thirty-five years of political life, let him speak out. I give permission to everybody to tell all he knows about me now. Regarding the future, I want to dispel the rumor that I intend to re-enter politics. Nothing could induce me to reassert myself in Tammany and play another part in politics. I am out for good and all."

Further on Mr. Croker said: "The future of the democratic party is in the hands of the workingman, and democrats should improve the conditions of labor and should insist that trusts which raise prices be killed. Rebates and enormous dividends should be prohibited and combining to raise prices or corner foodstuffs on the stock exchange should be made a criminal offense. * * * Fight on clean cut issues and do not accuse opponents of crimes simply because they are opponents. If you cannot win by fair means, do not stoop to foul ones. Do not despair at defeat if you have retained your manhood. That has been the lesson of my political career."

More Facts Obtained.

Herkimer, N. Y., Nov. 17—More facts upon which the prosecution in the case of Chester E. Gillette on trial here for the murder of his sweetheart, Grace Brown, will build its case came to light today when it was learned that the prosecution has scores of letters written by the girl to Gillette in which she reproached him for his treatment of her and referred to threats, bodily violence, and expressed wishes on his part that she was dead. A week before the girl's body were found in Moose Lake she sent Gillette the following:

"You remember, Chester, that you told me that you never would come to this section until my dead body was brought back. I have heard that you wished me dead. You must come to me as you promised."

A few days before she had written:

"If you fail to keep your promise to come to me, Saturday, I will surely come to Cortland any you will have to see me there. I cannot wait any longer."

Another time she wrote "I am nearly crazy with worry. I cannot sleep. Why don't you do something for me?"

Many of the letters were written in most passionate terms and referred to the time when they should be together again. She referred to past meetings.

The Roosevelt.

Sydney, N. S., Nov. 17.—Advices received here indicate that the Roosevelt, battered by her struggles in Arctic seas, will arrive here in the course of ten days bringing the returning Peary expedition. Incomplete reports show that the ship reached Domino, Labrador, and then sailed to the northermost settlement in Greenland.

The Roosevelt entered the ice and then drifting and steaming reached 82 27 degrees north, where winter quarters were established at a point beyond any previous known camping place used by man. On Feb. 10, 1906, Commander Peary and party made the dash for the Pole. Good weather favored him on the start, but after reaching 87 46 degrees north, a point within 153 miles of the Pole, where he was forced to turn back, Peary encountered frightful weather conditions, ran out of food, and had to live on dog meat. When he got back to the Roosevelt, 117 days after his departure, he was all but a physical wreck from privation and hardship.

Book Confiscated.

Berlin, Nov. 17.—Instead of following the example of some American millionaires in getting royalty to tap them on the shoulder, knighting them, J. Ogden Armour and Cornelius Vanderbilt initiated the Kaiser into the ranks of "We Fellows." The Kaiser allowed Armour to slap him on the back and Vanderbilt called his majesty a "good fellow." It is told in a book by "Pessimist" called "Our Kaiser and His People," which was promptly confiscated. It became known today. The book is only one more exposition of the dissatisfaction Germans feel for their Emperor. It hits at the Kaiser, and says he is no friend of liberality. It is supposed to have been written by a prominent politician, and the nom de plume is a tag off on the Kaiser's recent tirade against pessimists. The writer declares that the Kaiser wants to be considered as holding his throne by divine right. "The German people today," he says, "are fed on cavalry attacks, conferences a la Algeciras, and performances of Hohenzollern dramas." The Kaiser is condemned for his Americanism, while he is most sensitive from attacks from his own people.

Narrowly Escaped Lynching.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 17.—Stemming the fury of a mob long enough to go through the form of a trial, saved the life of B. O. Glenn, colored, who was released today after he had been identified by Mrs. J. I. Camp as the negro who assaulted her last Monday and had been condemned to death by public sentiment. The noose was practically around the neck of Glenn, when William Johnson, a giant black, was arrested and found to be the guilty man. Johnson had three women's skirts about his waist and a woman's stocking on his leg. He carried a gun with a cartridge identical to the one found in Mrs. Camp's home. Glenn was sitting sullenly in the court room, all hope having been lost, when the announcement of the arrest of Johnson was made. The jury at once retired and returned a verdict of acquittal. Though the wisdom of allowing the law to take its course had been so powerfully demonstrated, it is certain that nothing but a record breaking trial will save Johnson from lynching.

Hypnotized by Pastor.

Bloomington, Ill., Nov. 17.—Stating she was under the hypnotic influence of her pastor, the Rev. R. V. Meigs, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Mrs. Georgia Lathrop, a well-known young society woman of Adams county, implored him to leave and accept a call to the church at Urbana, Ill., he having recently been invited to the latter pulpit.

Mrs. Lathrop's mental trouble became so pronounced that she was taken before an insane commission in the County Court and examined. It was found, after close questioning, that she was insane on the single subject only, her mind being perfectly clear otherwise. She has a husband and four little children.

Terrific Gales.

Ottawa, Ont., Nov. 17.—Terrific gales are sweeping the coast. Six vessels are wrecked near St. Martins, St. Johns, and Charlottetown, N. B. It is impossible at this time to say how many small schooners are wrecked in the storm which is still raging. It is feared several steamers have been lost. The coast is lined with men and women fearing for the safety of loved ones at sea in fishing boats. Life savers are working like demons to rescue men from some of the vessels, but it is impossible to launch life boats and up to noon today attempts to shoot out a line and bring in men by breeches buoy had failed.

Proposed Visit from Japanese Squadron.

San Francisco, Nov. 17.—A Japanese squadron will visit the United States early next year. This word was received by the consul here from the consul at Honolulu. Plans for the visit of the fleet have been completed and an appropriation of $250,000 to defray the expenses of the trip has been announced. After visiting San Francisco the fleet will sail southward about South America, putting in at all important ports, then sail up the Atlantic coast as far as New York.

To Challenge Again.

New York, Nov. 17.—With a promise to challenge next year for the America's cup, Sir Thomas Lipton, who has made three unsuccessful trials, sailed for home today on the Carmania. He came to the United States this time, he explained, to pave the way for another race. He thinks his visit a success. "I shall challenge for the cup next year," he said. "The race to take place in 1908. The challenge will be under the new rules of measurement of the New York Yacht Club."

Robbers Start Fire.

Sedalia, Mo., Nov. 17.—Robbers attempting to blow the safe of a hardware store, at Walker, Mo., early today, set the building on fire and before the blaze was extinguished, four store buildings and the bank were destroyed. The loss is estimated at $75,000. The entire town was threatened when the wind shifted and the flames were controlled. The bank destroyed was looted last Tuesday night by robbers.

Pulitzer Struck Hearst.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 17.—Joseph Pulitzer, jr., son of the New York publisher, admitted today that he struck William R. Hearst in the pit of the stomach late yesterday and when informed that Mr. Hearst had denied that there had been an encounter, replied: "Well, he lied then." The trouble was the result of a newspaper attack made by Hearst on the elder Pulitzer.

Laboring Men and Roosevelt.

Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 17—A suggestion of how laboring men may clamor for Roosevelt again was seen in a canvass 112 Federation delegates representing a million union men this morning. Fifty-two voted for Roosevelt, 13 for Bryan, and 11 for Hearst, 6 for Taft, Cannon, Shaw, John A. Johnson, and Elihu Root got two votes each. Others voted for unimportant men.

Negro Threw Carbolic Acid.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 17.—The North Braddock borough police have been notified of an attempted assault with the purpose of highway robbery upon Miss Jeannette Brownlee, 18 years old. A negro attempted to grasp Miss Brownlee and when she screamed threw carbolic acid in her face. She will be badly disfigured.

The Insurrection in the Transvaal.

Capetown, Nov. 17.—After six days of insurrectionary work among the inhabitants of the northwest part of the colony, Ferreira, the Boer outlaw, with his entire band have been captured. Entering the northwest section he surprised the police in the vicinity of Wotkop and wounded two troopers, seized the arms and ammunition, later captured the corporal of police and then hurried into the borderland. He compelled farmers to join him and declared that revolution was imminent.

Shoots an Eagle 100 Years Old.

Bernville, Pa., Nov. 17.—Henry Kaufman, of Upper Bern township, shot a real American eagle on the Blue Mountain yesterday. When he first saw the bird he thought it was a large hawk. He was 100 yards away, but fired, and brought the bird to its feet, when it began to run away rapidly. The eagle measured seven feet from tip to tip of the wings, and stood three feet six inches high. It weighed 25 pounds, and, judging by the thickness of its legs and length of claws (three inches) the eagle was nearly 100 years old.

Injunction Against Negro Elks.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 17.—Judge Miller gave a decision yesterday in favor of the order of Elks against T. S. Thomas and others restraining them perpetually from organizing a negro lodge under the name and title of the B. P. O. E. of the United States in the State of Georgia. Judge Miller decided that the negroes could not in any manner infringe upon the rights of the Elks as a body. The negroes propose to evade the decision by naming the order "The Improved Benevolen Order of Elks."

New York Stock Market.

New York, Nov. 17.—The stock market was excited and strong all through the first hour with the Hill-Harriman stocks and Reading the principal features of interest. Great Northern preferred advanced 3 points to 333½; later declined to 330. Northern Pacific advanced one point at 228 and declined to 225½ and then advanced to 227¾. Union Pacific opened ¾ higher at 186¾ and advanced to 187¾. U. S. Steel held strong. London bought about 15,000 shares on balance, chiefly Canadian Pacific and Union Pacific.

Commends Harris Killing.

At the inquest over the body of "Will" Harris, the desperado who was shot to death by a posse of officers and citizens near Asheville, N. C., on Thursday the coroner's jury returned the following verdict:

"Said Will Harris, alias Rufe Lindsay, came to his death at the hands of public-spirited citizens who at the time were in the fearless and unselfish discharge of a public duty that the law might be vindicated and justice administered; that said Will Harris, alias Rufe Lindsay, at the time of his death was resisting arrest and attempting to shoot and kill the citizens above referred to, constituting the posse who were attempting undue authority of the law to effect the capture of the said Will Harris, alias Rufe Lindsay.

"That the citizens above referred to, constituting the posse aforesaid, as well as others who participated in the search and spontaneous efforts to bring to justice this incarnate fiend and savage desperado, are entitled to the commendation and thanks of the whole community."

The R., F. & P. Railway.

There is considerable speculation in Richmond as to the kind and amount of pressure brought by the State officials to cause Vice President Rea, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, to reconsider his refusal to accord to Governor Swanson a conference on the question of the appointment of a president for the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad. At any rate, Mr. Rea has receded from the arbitrary selection of John G. Rogers for the position, and will confer with the Governor next Monday on the question of Judge Leake's successor.

The State officials resented the treatment of the Governor by the railroad officer, and the State Corporation Commission which would have immense power in the way of reprisals for an unfair action against the State's interest, is said to have been a strong factor in Mr. Rea's change of front.

The Buffalo flyer eastbound, on the Philadelphia & Erie ran into a freight engine in the yards at Renovo early today. The engineer of the passenger train, was scalded to death. The firemen, was badly hurt. None of the passengers were injured.

The strike of the Clyde boilermakers, which began September 29, in which 10,000 men were involved, has come to an end by the men returning to work. They did not gain one of the points in dispute.

Railroad Assessments.

The Corporation Commission has completed its assessments of railways, canals, telegraph companies, &c., and the results are before us in the shape of their report for the year 1906. Years ago it was pointed out that Alexandria was getting it hard from this constitutional commission in taking from us all the rolling stock assessed at $250,000 and also trackage from Henry street to Union along Wilkes; two tracks on Union street south to Jones's Point and north to the extensive plant of the Portuer Brewing Company, including a fine tunnel, none assessed for one dollar and from which the city years ago received between forty-five hundred and five thousand dollars per annum. It was hoped that the limit had been reached, but a comparison of assessments for the years 1905 and 1906 shows that the real estate of the Southern Railway has depreciated in value during one year to the amount of $2,470. In order to keep up the good work the real estate of the Washington Southern Railway in this city, which consists of their holdings on Henry, Fayette, Cameron and Queen streets and part of a square, Fayette, Duke and Wolfe streets—which in 1905 was assessed at $10,725, in 1906 for $2,200. In a word the assessment of the Washington Southern Railway Company in Alexandria city on every class of property, real and personal, including rolling stock, is $153,154 this year; last year it was $158,382; a net reduction of $5,228. Should the constitution be amended, Alexandria would like to even up by abolishing some commissions; indeed it is the opinion of many had the constitutional convention confined itself to the election laws and one or two other matters and promptly adjourned, we might have been better off, certainly as well.

The Market.

The supply of country produce in market this morning was below the average, and prices were high. Butter was 30c a 35c a pound, and eggs had advanced to 40 cents a dozen. Some small dressed chickens, of an unattractive variety, were offered at 50 cents each. A few dressed ducks were held at 75 cents. Undrawn turkeys were quoted at 25 cents a pound. 'Possums were sold at 50 cents each, and rabbits at 25 cents. Meats had undergone no change in prices. Beef sold at from 6 to 20 cents a pound, veal 12½ to 12, mutton 12½ to 20, and pork at 12½ to 15 cents. Smoked and salted meats were unchanged in prices. The supply of vegetables was limited. Cabbage sold at 5c per head, kale 5 cents a quarter of a peck, spinach 8 cents, cresses 6, Irish and sweet potatoes 5 a 8, turnips 8, parsnips 10, salsify 6 cents per bunch, onions 2 cents per bunch, carrots 10 cents per quarter peck, lettuce 3 cents per head, celery 5 cents a bunch and radishes 2 cents. Some apples were disposed of at 10 cents per quarter peck, and pears at 8 cents. There was an abundant supply of fish on the benches. Winter shad were 30 cents a bunch, white and yellow perch and small rockfish 10 per pound, and large rock 15, lake fish, trout and codfish 10 cents.

Gave Bail.

J. Harvey Robinson, who, with his father, John Robinson, was arrested Thursday night on suspicion of robbing freight cars, has furnished bail in the sum of $2,000 for his appearance before the Police Court on the 23d instant. Mr. William Penn and Mrs. Sims became his sureties. His father, being unable to furnish security, is held.

The articles were found in the house No. 121 north Lee street and consist of a miscellaneous assortment. They embrace shoes, clothing, fishing tackle, rifles, guns, pistols, ammunition, jewelry, toilet articles, and, in fact, merchandise of almost every description. Mr. George S. Hinkins, local agent for the Southern Railway Company, has made an inventory of the articles.

The explosions heard today in the western section of the city emanated from the Southern Railway round house where workmen were using dynamite to remove bolts from locomotives.

To Undergo an Operation.

Dr. T. Marshall Jones who has been quite ill for some time past was taken to Providence Hospital, in Washington, today where he will be operated upon for exophthelmic goiter. The doctor has received every care and attention from the Alexandria physicians and several Washington physicians were called in for consultation. It was agreed that an operation had best be performed and Dr. Jones readily consented to go to Providence Hospital for that purpose. The operation will be performed by Dr. Halstead, of Johns Hopkins Hospital, of Baltimore, and Dr. J. F. Mitchell, formerly of Johns Hopkins Hospital but now of Washington, two skilled surgeons who have had considerable experience in such cases. The doctor was accompanied to Washington by Mrs. Jones and his two sons and stood the trip very well. His many friends hope that the operation will be entirely successful and that he will soon be able to return to his home.

Alcoholic Candies.

"Booze drops," candy said to contain rum and other alcoholic liquors, which attained popularity among pupils of Washington schools, have been placed under the ban of the District of Columbia, and their sale to school children forbidden, pending an investigation by the health authorities. Revelations concerning this practice were made yesterday morning to Commissioner West by the mothers of several high school pupils who said the children were obtaining "booze drops" from stores in the neighborhood. The authorities announce their determination to prosecute the offenders. Attention has recently been called to the nature of cheap candy sold in Alexandria to children. In other cities deaths has resulted from the use of dangerous concoctions which have been eaten by unsuspecting children.

Committed to Jail.

The case of the U. S. government vs. James M., alias Marsh Jackson, for alleged perjury, in making a false, fraudulent and fictitious affidavit in obtaining a pension for Patsy Locker, of Stafford county, came up before U. S. Commissioner Butzner in Fredericksburg yesterday. After hearing the evidence Commissioner Butzner sent the accused Jackson on to the grand jury of the U. S. District Court at Alexandria. The accused was unable to give the bond of $1,000 and was committed to jail at Alexandria, to await action of the District Court. Deputy U. S. Marshal J. F. Glover brought the prisoner to this city yesterday evening and lodged him in jail.

D. A. R.

The November meeting of the Mt. Vernon Chapter, D. A. R., was held last evening at the home of Mrs. S. L. Monroe on Queen street, Mrs. T. W. Robinson, regent, presiding. An interesting report of the D. A. R. conference, held lately in Richmond, was given by Mrs. Dabney Herndon, delegate from the chapter. The paper of Miss Rebecca Powell on the history of the Mt. Vernon Chapter from its incorporation to its present satisfactory condition, was most graceful and comprehensive. After the business of the evening, the members of the chapter and a few other guests were most delightfully entertained by their always charming hostess.

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Downham last night celebrated at their residence on north Washington street the 41st anniversary of their marriage. A number of their friends were present, all of whom wished Mr. and Mrs. Downham many returns of the occasion.

Mr. Harry Hammond has gone to Delaplane to spend a week.

Mr. Winfield Jones, of Atlanta, and Mr. Gerald Jones, who is now attending William and Mary College, are in the city, having come on to see their father, Dr. T. Marshall Jones, who continues quite ill.

Miss Alice Chinn, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. W. Richardson, in Fairfax, has returned to her home in this city.

Special Vesper Services.

The second of the series of special Sunday vesper services will be held at St. Mary's Church tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Father Kelly, acting pastor, will officiate and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. Father O'Hora, of the Apostolic Mission House, Brookland, D. C. Subject—"Christian Heritage." The Gregorian music, prescribed by the church, will be rendered by the male choir in chanting the vespers under the direction of Mr. P. F. Downey, choir master. All are cordially invited to attend these services, ushers being in attendance to provide seats for all.

Boat Burned.

The gasoline boat Icicle, which with the Adelaide of the same class has recently been transporting passengers and freight from this city and Washington to river landings, was burned at Clifton Beach last night. The Icicle belonged to the Potomac Transportation Company, the boats of which arrive and depart from DeW. Aitcheson's wharf, near the foot of Prince street. The Icicle was built in Baltimore in 1902. She was 57 feet 4 inches long, 12 feet in breadth, with a depth of 4 feet 6 inches, and was of 25 horse power. She was of 14 gross tonnage.

Alarm of Fire.

The alarm of fire about twelve o'clock last night was caused by the burning of the cab of a locomotive in the Southern Railway yard. The engine was brought out of the yard, where it was endangering other cars, and placed at the intersection of Wolfe and Henry streets and streams from the steam engines soon extinguished the flames.

Will Appeal.

Messrs. Machen and Moncure, counsel for Howard Banks, colored, recently convicted of the murder of Thomas Elzey, also colored, are now engaged in getting up the records in the case which they will take to the Court of Appeals and ask that the verdict be set aside and a new trial granted the condemned man.

Holiday Opening of Toys, Dolls and Games.

Our young friends now have the pleasure of seeing a very unique toy, The "Whistling Boy"—a wonderfully lifelike representation of a boy on his way to school, whistling tunes that are familiar to all. He keeps time with his hand and winks his eye, as if to say "How do you like it?" This toy was built by one of the oldest toy makers in France, and is the most expensive mechanical toy ever put on the market, being valued at $200.

Another feature which will amuse the children most of all is "Missus Katzenjammer"—as she is called in Leipsic. She is an old German Lady we brought over from Leipsic to take part in our Xmas Toy Opening. She is the original Missus Katzenjammer, who was on exhibition at Leipsic, during the Toy Fair last March, and who was followed through the streets by thousands of children and grown folks.

She is here in her original costume, just as she appeared at Leipsic, and is ready to wish every boy and girl a "Merry Xmas."

There are many more unique and novel mechanical toys which you have never seen before and which will be "going" for your pleasure.

We direct special attention to our Department of Games and Juvenile Books, which is one of the largest and most comprehensive to be found anywhere. All the favorite old games, the new ones, just out, and a large line of Educational Games, which are both instructive and amusing, are shown. The prices for games vary from 5c. to $10.00 each.

Purchases made now will be carefully stored and delivered at your convenience up to an including Xmas Eve.

We cordially invite the children to visit our Toy Department, on the Fourth Floor, where all the delightful "make believes" which form so important a part in the lives of little folks have found their home.

The grown folks are also invited.

Furs Not Always What They Seem.

Does the average fur buyer know that the far eastern mink is simply a dyed marmot with the black stripes painted in with a toothbrush? Does the buyer know that the low priced black lynx sets are nothing but common wildcats or Roumanian cats or in some cases soft Chinese wolf skin? Does he know that the white ermine pillow muffs selling for a song are really weasels, and yellow weasels at that, since a white weasel commands almost as high a price as its dear relative, the ermine? Then the sable lynx scarfs and muffs that sell for a few dollars are of course nothing but coney or hare, while the cheaper caracal sets are simply kid astrakhan, which is something entirely different from caracal—as different indeed as ordinary Persian is from broadtail. The beautiful imitation white fox sets that appear also are generally moufion, or in some cases combed white tibet.—Nugent's Bulletin.

A Daring Bishop.

A story of the great Bishop Selwyn of New Zealand is told by Commander Gambier of the British navy in his book. The bishop's missionary yacht, the Southern Cross, touched a coral reef when entering the harbor Port of France, New Caledonia. It became necessary to examine her bottom, but the sharks were so numerous and so daring that nobody would venture into the water. "So the bishop, who held that if a man showed a bold front to a shark he would sheer off, went over board himself with a long, sharp knife in his mouth for defense, and, diving under his vessel, ascertained the damage. He then came on board our ship, and we arranged to careen the yacht sufficiently to enable him to nail on some copper sheets, which he did himself, again spending a long time in the water. For some curious reason not a single shark hove in sight all the time."

Many a Slip For the Farmer.

"Raising wheat is no easy task," remarked a farmer. "One year I had 500 acres of as beautiful wheat as ever lay out of doors. It stood breast high, and it seemed good for forty bushels to the acre. That meant to me a profit of $7,000. I had the teams and harvest hands engaged and expected to begin cutting on Monday. On Friday afternoon there came out of the northwest a greenish gray cloud. Following a heavy rain, the hail fell. In ten minutes the wheat was flattened to six inches from the ground. We cut a little of it for hay. The remainder rotted on the ground. The mortgage on the farm was foreclosed, and I hired out by the day to support my family. Do you wonder that the wheat farmer is not boastful of his crop until he has it in the granary?"—Outlook.

The Oldest Tunnel.

The oldest known tunnel in the world is that of Siloah, near Jerusalem. It was used as an aqueduct. The famous inscription, discovered some years ago, celebrates the first meeting of the diggers from both sides. Newspapers did not appear in those days, and so the event cannot be exactly dated, but it most probably took place under King Hezekiah, about 700 B. C., and is an interesting testimony to the high state of civilization among the Jews at a time when Europe was inhabited by savages.—American Israelite.

Shocking Mortality.

The crowded ship gave a sudden lurch.

There was a splash.

"Oh," wailed the young woman who had been sitting near the rail reading a book, "think of all those lives being lost!"

But nothing could be done, and she gazed sadly at her copy of "Plutarch" dancing merrily on the waves far astern.—Chicago Tribune.

A Kaffir Story.

This Kaffir story is true: A Christian Zulu-Kaffir was heard recounting to another Kaffir a vision of heaven of which he had had a dream. "And saw you any Kaffirs there?" inquired his listener. The teller of the story pondered awhile, and then "No," said he, "for I did not look into the kitchen."

The Silver Lining.

Mrs. Suburbs (after the crash)—There is another of my china dishes gone! Suburbs—Never mind, dear; it has stopped the cook's singing.

At one time during the life of John Bright there were no fewer than seven members of his family with seats in the house of commons.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters; which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Biliousness, Neuralgia, weakness and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements. A wonderful Tonic. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. 50 cents.
